

Weston-Super-Mare, North Somerset

Weekly Footfall 196,000

One of the original British seaside resorts and steeped with Victorian history, Weston super Mare is located at the gateway to the South West of England. It is best known for its sandy beaches, T4 on the Beach and the Grand Pier which has been voted one of the top 10 free attractions in the country. The High Street itself is home to a wide range of stores from fashion to technology and much more...

Anchor stores:

Marks and Spencer, Waterstones and The Body Shop

Interesting facts About Weston-Super-Mare...

John Cleese best known for his work in Fawlty Towers and Monty Python was born in Weston-Super-Mare.

The Severn Estuary has one of the largest tidal ranges in the world, second only to the Bay of Fundi in Canada.

From May through to September, world renowned sand artists take over sections of the beach at Weston-super-Mare and entertain passersby with their quirky and impressive sculptures which are chiseled out of sand.

1 Big Lamp Corner Size: 6m x 4m

Situated on the cross roads of the High Street and Regent Street outside of Costa Coffee. This gives the area high football and the location can accommodate a range of promotional displays.

