

Wythenshawe, Greater Manchester

Weekly Footfall 70,000

Wythenshawe is a district in the south of the city of Manchester. It is home to the busiest ASDA in the UK, including Argos and Wilkinson. The town centre, originally built in the 1960s, was renovated between 1999 and 2002 and is an excellent town for sign-ups and subscriptions.

Anchor stores:

Asda, Wilkinson, Superdrug, Argos, Home Bargains, Costa Coffee

Interesting facts About Wythenshawe...

Over 43,000 people work in Wythenshawe.

Jason Orange of 'Take That' fame is from Wythenshawe.

Wythenshawe is Manchester's largest district and home to the city's only community farm.

It is the outdoor filming location for the Channel 4 series Shameless.

1 The Birtles
Size: 10m x 10m

The external promotional space situated in the heart of the shopping centre occupying a prominent pitch. This is opposite the entrance to Asda and the multi storey car park. It can accommodate stands of all sizes right through to large trailers

