

North Shields, North Tyneside

Weekly Footfall 120,000

North Shields is a town on the north bank of the River Tyne, in the metropolitan borough of North Tyneside, Tyne and Wear in North East England. Historically part of Northumberland, it is located eight miles (13 km) east of Newcastle upon Tyne. Its name derives from Middle English schele meaning 'temporary sheds or huts (used by fishermen) and still today, the area is synonymous with fishing and other trades associated with seafaring.

Anchor stores:

Boots, Wilkinsons and Superdrug

Interesting facts about North Shields...

In the twentieth century Stan Laurel lived at a house in Dockray Square for a few years, before he became famous.

The Stephenson Railway Museum is home to George Stephenson's 'Billy', a forerunner of the world-famous Rocket. 'Billy' is joined by many other engines, including 'Jackie Milburn', named after the Newcastle United legend

1

Natwest

Size: 6m x 4m

Placed on Bedford Way outside of Natwest, a busy central area of North Shields with high footfall. Easily hold, van and gazebo as part of promotion.

